FATHER-IN-LAW IS ON TRAIL

Parent of Pastor's Deserted Wife Says He Will Push Case to the End Himself.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Kaziah Whaley, grandmother of Floretta, who eloped with Rev. Jere Cooke, is quoted as saying she will take no steps toward a prosecution. She will rather ask that the warrant be quashed. In view of her attitude and the expense involved, the pursuit is likely to be dropped. Unless the grandmother, or Nassau county, pays the expenses, Judge Gittens said the matter will be closed.

Father-in-Law Hot.
HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 31.—If Cooke is not apprehended and punished for wife desertion it will not be the fault of his father-in-law, Rienzie A. Clarke, of this city. Clarke expressed surprise that Cooke was not apprehended by the Frisco authorities.

The Second Flight.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 31.—Hoping to escape the disgrace following their discovery, the Rev. Jere Cooke and Floretta, formerly pastor of St. George's church, at Hempstead, Long Island, and Floretta Whaley, the 17-year old girl from Mineola, L. I., with whom he eloped eight months ago, deserting his wife, again took up their long flight last night. Their possessions, won through rigid economy during the time Cooke worked as a painter and decorator, they left behind in their little flat at 1193 Green street. Whether the fugitives have gone is not known.

Cooke told reporters a story of unhappy marital relations with his deserted wife, who he says admitted she married him for social position, and said he had deserted all for his first love, the little girl who gave up a fortune to follow him.

POLICE SAY RORAFF HAD BEEN DRINKING

Concerning the belief of La Crosse relatives that Jos. J. Roraff was murdered and not drowned in Chicago the police of the Hudson avenue station, Chicago, who found the body, stated last night that there were no marks of violence on the body. A coroner's inquest was held Saturday. The verdict was that Roraff had "come to his death by drowning or other means." Evidence showed that Roraff had been drinking prior to his death.

TO OBSERVE BIRTH OF THE NEW YEAR

La Crosse promises to be a lively place tonight when the old year passes out and the new year is welcomed. Parties, dances and other fetes will be held.

At most churches watch services will be held from 9 o'clock until after the opening of the new year.

At the City Mission the regular Tuesday evening services will be held at 8 o'clock when Master Oscar will deliver an address after which refreshments will be served and a watch service will be held until 12. Rev. Ivey will conduct the services and a musical program will be given by the mission choir.

At the Christ Episcopal church, the annual Christmas tree will be held in the evening and a watch service will be held from 9 until 12 o'clock, Rev. C. N. Moeller conducting the services.

Watch services will be held at the West Avenue Methodist church from 9 to 12 o'clock by Rev. Cunningham. His subject is "Let the Closing Moments of the Old Year and the First Thought of the New Year Be With God and of Him."

At the various lodges in the city, including the La Crosse club, special arrangements have been made for the celebrating of New Year's eve.

The Gate City Pleasure club of the Modern V. odmen will give a Sylvester ball this evening at the Woodmen hall in the Linker building, and have prepared a special feature for the dance to take place at 12 o'clock, while the old year goes and the new year arrives.

DIVIDEND GIVEN BY ENGRAVING CO.

CREDITORS WILL GET BETWEEN
10 AND 15 PER CENT

FIRST SINCE CRASH CAME

Olson Is Discharged from Bankruptcy
and Otto Munz Is Trustee for Joseph Fischer

At a meeting of the creditors of the La Crosse Engraving company, 102 South Second street, 118 Main street, before Judge Fruit this morning, it was decided to declare a dividend for creditors. The dividend will be between 10 and 15 per cent.

The La Crosse Engraving company made an assignment about one year ago, and John M. Holley, Jr., was appointed trustee. Since then he has had charge of the property, and has straightened out the tangled affairs, so that the creditors are now able to figure out the assets.

The dividend will be the first declared, since the company made the assignment. A. J. Stephenson, president of the defunct company, has been absent from the city for almost a year.

Several claims were allowed creditors this morning. John Rehffuss, who did considerable work for the company after its failure, was allowed $400 for his services, while Morris and Hartwell were allowed compensation for legal work.

It is probable another meeting of the creditors will be held shortly and the dividend declared. Receiver Holley presented his temporary report of the affairs of the company today.

Olson Discharged.
Because he had no assets, George Olson, former proprietor of the La Crosse Steam Dye Works, who went into bankruptcy a short time ago, was discharged by Referee in Bankruptcy C. L. Baldwin this morning.

None of the creditors of Olson appeared at the time set for the meeting, because there were no assets to be distributed.

Otto Munz Appointed.
Otto Munz, clerk in the Security Savings bank, was appointed trustee of the property of Joseph Fischer, 815 South Fifteenth street, a butcher. Fischer went into bankruptcy a short time ago. Referee in Bankruptcy Baldwin appointed Munz today, at a meeting of the creditors.

GAMBLING OUTFITS TO FEED NEW YEAR'S FIRES IN NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, Dec. 31.—Thousands of dollars worth of all kinds of gambling paraphernalia will be used in New Mexico tonight for New Year's fires. Midnight marks the death of gambling in the territory. The gamblers had planned to go to Colorado, but the lid goes on there also, and Nevada is the only state now open.

20 "OLD MAIDS" ON PARADE TOO MUCH

PLAINFIELD, Ind., Dec. 31.—Two months ago the "Old Maids' club" of this village gave a novel entertainment and parade, publishing wide the fact that there had not been a marriage here for years, though there were "as good fish in the sea as had ever been caught out of it."

Every one of the twenty "old maids" carried banners in the parade that preceded the entertainment, all of them bearing legends such as "Ain't I sweet?" "Don't I look nice?" "Wouldn't you like to have me?"

Standing on a corner watching the parade was R. G. Gephart, a wealthy contractor of Chicago, and at the head of the parade was Miss Cyrena Stanley. Gephart saw and was conquered. Today he and Miss Stanley were married by the Rev. J. J. Wilson, in the presence of a large number of friends, who included the members of the "Old Maids' club." The remaining members of the club are greatly encouraged, and are discussing the advisability of giving another entertainment.

WISCONSIN MEN NOT YET OUT OF WOODS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The government proposes to carry to the United States supreme court on appeal the cases against nineteen wealthy capitalists of Colorado, Iowa, Missouri and Wisconsin, the indicted against whom for alleged timber and coal land frauds were thrown out in the federal court of Denver yesterday.

BRYAN HEADS LIST OF MONEY-MAKERS ON THE LECTURE PLATFORM TODAY

A NEW PICTURE OF WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN IN REPOSE.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 31.—According to the reports of his agents, William Jennings Bryan is making about $50,000 a year from his lectures. It is said that he has filled 175 dates during the year 1907 and that his receipts for the season have averaged more than $300 for each appearance. Mr. Bryan stands at the head of the line of platform speakers today for the size of his audiences, for the receipts at the box office, and for the demand for his appearance. It is said in Lyceum Bureau headquarters that Mr. Bryan's charge at Chautauquas is the first $250 taken at the gate and half of all the receipts over $500. For evening lectures in a course he charges $200 cash as a guaranty and half of all the receipts at the door. For single evening lectures not in a regular course he asks half the gross receipts.

It is declared that his average for the season under these terms, which are terms that no other platform lecturer in America can make, has been more than $300 a lecture. Mr. Bryan uses a special form of contract prepared by himself in making dates through the Lyceum Bureau. The chief features of his contracts are the stipulation that the general admission to his lectures shall not exceed 50 cents, and that he will not lecture under individual management or where the profits go to individuals. It is said that the greatest indoor audience Mr. Bryan ever addressed was at Seattle last January, when 8,000 people heard him. The greatest audience he ever addressed at Chautauquas was at Carthage, Mo., where 12,000 people gathered to hear him.

FUNSTON WANTS THE TROOPS TO REMAIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—A telegram from Gen. Funston regarding the condition in Goldfield received today at the war department suggests that two companies of troops, recruited to their full strength of 65 men, will be sufficient to cope with any situation likely to arise. He says the presence of a detachment, however small, will serve to prevent trouble.

NUDE CORPSE TURNS UP ALIVE TODAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A woman named Mrs. Agnes Young, who claims she is the person referred to by Mrs. Frank Hull in the identification of the corpse found in a pond at Harrison, is employed in a realty office here. She is indignant that her name has been brought into the case. She admits knowing Mrs. Hull and is astounded at her story.

Mrs. Hull claimed the nude body was that of Mrs. Young, who she said she "new when employed as a domestic in the home of a Mrs. King, of Newark, N. J."

NIHILIST BOMB PLANT FOUND IN FARM HOUSE

SEVASTOPOL, Dec. 31.—A plant for manufacturing explosives in which were 27 finished bombs and 120 others partly completed has been found by the police in a farmhouse near here. Three men were arrested on the premises. It is supposed it was an anarchist plant.

MARRIAGE COMES AS SURPRISE TO PARENTS OF PAIR

HERMAN TAUSCHE AND HATTIE PFAFFLIN GET LICENSE

WEDDED IN CHICAGO LIKELY

Parents of Girl Deny They Were to be Married; Supposed She Was in Ladysmith, Wis.

What is at least a surprise to their friends and parents here, occurred in Chicago when Mr. Herman A. Tausche, aged 24, and Miss Hattie Pfafflin of La Crosse secured a marriage license. They are probably married ere this. The news was conveyed in a telegram to The Tribune from Chicago this morning.

Mr. Tausche is a son of Mrs. Christina Tausche, widow of Raymond Tausche, and is a nephew of Vincent Tausche, the well known hardware man. He is employed as commercial traveler for his uncle's firm and covers southern Minnesota and north on the Burlington and this vicinity.

Miss Pfafflin is 21 years of age and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pfafflin, 1021 Jackson street. Her father is the senior member of the hardware firm of Pfafflin and Manke, with stores at 1302 Caledonia and on South Fourth street. Miss Pfafflin had been employed as a clerk for William F. Strauss, the shoe man.

When asked as to the details of the matter today William Pfafflin and Mrs. Pfafflin both denied the story. They declared their daughter had gone to Ladysmith, Wis., to spend the day with relatives. Mrs. Pfafflin said that she had no knowledge of any engagement between Tausche and her daughter, admitting however, that the "old folks" don't know everything.

Mrs. Christina Tausche, mother of Mr. Tausche, was not at home this afternoon and could not be seen.

V. Tausche, his uncle, however, said that he had believed the couple had been engaged for some time. He said that Mr. Tausche was in Chicago on his vacation, and that while he did not have any knowledge of their securing a marriage license or being married, the news was not a surprise to him. Mr. Tausche being on his vacation, which is not yet consumed, it is thought the pair will take a brief honeymoon trip before returning to La Crosse.

STATE EXPERTS HERE TO INSPECT LOCAL LIGHT PROPERTIES

Representing the state railroad commission in the capacity of electric lighting and power experts, Prof. C. F. Burgess, of the University of Wisconsin, who holds the chair of electro-chemistry, and W. F. Sloan, also an electrical expert, have been in the city for three days testing the efficiency of the local lighting and power plants and service.

The experts came here Dec. 27, and left Dec. 30. They are engaged in a general tour of the state, and are making tests in various cities on behalf of the commission. While here they took many tests, including the city buildings, the McMillan building, residences and other business houses.

The visit of the scientists was not publicly announced. Mayor Anderson today admitted that they had been here, and that the nature of their work was a general inspection of the local plants for the use of the commission. President McMillan, of the La Crosse Gas & Electric company, said the experts called at the plants and inspected them. He understands that this is part of their work in a general plan to secure a uniform degree of efficiency throughout the state. This is their second visit.

Some time ago representatives of the commission spent a number of days in La Crosse looking over the properties of the La Crosse City Street Railway company.

No intimation of the conclusions reached could be secured in either case.

DEMONSTRATION FOR POWERS BLOCKS THE COURT ROOM TODAY

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Dec. 31.—At the noon recess, following the closing argument for Powers by his chief counsel, Judge J. C. CONGRESS TO PLUNGE INTO NAVAL WAR

REAR ADMIRAL WILLARD BROWNSON.

A lovely row has been precipitated in the navy department by the resignation of Rear Admiral Brownson, chief of the bureau of navigation. It probably will be the subject of an inquiry as soon as congress meets again. The white house flatly refuses to say or do anything more in the matter. The line and staff officers are at war again. Surgeon-General Rixey has issued a statement defending his play of having medical officers command hospital ships. Dr. Rixey, having spoken, line officers would like to present their side of the case, but they are in an embarrassing position. Admiral Brownson preceded his resignation by a cold, clear and logical presentation of the reasons why he objected to the assignment of a position to command a naval ship, even though it were exclusively devoted to hospital use. It is expected this will be threshed out on the floor of congress and once and for all decided whether to sustain the line or the staff officers.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 31.—(Special.)—The Western Union Telegraph company today filed articles of incorporation under which it to do business in this state. The fee paid is $603.

Although the company has operated in Wisconsin for a number of years, it has repeatedly refused to incorporate, and recently the state attorney general began an action against the company for a $500 forfeiture provided under the act passed by the legislature recently, requiring all companies doing business in this state to file its articles of incorporation here. This suit is still pending, and there is some doubt that it will be dropped, even in view of the capitulation of the corporation.

AUTOISTS HOLD UP ST. CAR AND FLEE WITH RICH PLUNDER

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 31.—Two men in an auto held up a trolley car about 6 o'clock this morning and relieved the crew of the company's treasure-chest containing $2,859 in cash. They dumped the chest into the auto and threw on full speed. An alarm was instantly given but before autos could be secured to follow them the robbers were beyond the city limits. The thieves are well in the lead according to telephone messages along the line of the chase.

WEATHER FORECAST

Coldest, 8; warmest, 26; wind, 4 miles; snowfall, trace.

Williston and Edmondton, with 14 below, were coldest, and New Orleans with 72 was warmest in the country yesterday. Snow flurries and light rains were general.

Forecasts: today—

Wisconsin—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; slightly warmer tonight.

Minnesota—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Iowa—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer east portion tonight.

Weather Conditions.

The storm in the lower lake region yesterday morning has moved to the St. Lawrence valley causing general rain or snow in the middle and the north Atlantic states. The high has moved into the southern states causing a decided fall in temperature from the lake region to the east Gulf and Atlantic states. The western low has remained central in Oregon.

The temperature has also fallen in the northwest and risen from Wyoming and South Dakota to western Texas.

Fair and cool weather prevails throughout the northwest with light winds and the pressure conditions favor a continuation of fair weather in this section tonight and Wednesday without any decided change in temperature.

BOSTON, Dec. 31.—Secretary of War Taft last night assured of the support of the united Massachusetts delegation in the national convention. For several days it has been rumored that Senator Crane was preparing to break with Lodge and support Hughes, but the situation has been changed. Taft went to Milbury to visit his old home. He goes to Washington tonight.

Defends the President.
BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 31.—Secretary of War Taft last night rounded a strenuous day at the banquet of Merchants and Manufacturers' association by defending President Roosevelt's policies and placing the blame for the recent financial storm on the heads of the lawless trusts. He minced no words, but delivered his blows straight from the shoulder.

He dismissed Senator Foraker's contention that the rate bill "caused the late panic" with a shaft of withering ridicule and praised that regulatory measure as an evidence of an awakened public conscience.

Issues Plain Warning.
Mr. Taft warned his audience that to follow the urgings of the defenders of the trusts, meant the repeal of the Sherman act, and the practical giving over of the country to the unscrupulous of the corporations, whose continued financial depredations sooner or later would let down the bars for socialism.

The banquet hall of the Somerset hotel was filled, and as Secretary Taft began his speech he was stopped by cheers "for the next president." Throughout his address he was listened to with marked attention.

ASS'N. ON RECORD FOR CHICAGO CLUB

WILL ASK PERMISSION OF COMMISSION TO EXPAND

ALL OWNERS SIGN PETITION

Move Has Created a Sensation in Baseball Circles, as it Has Been Considered a Bluff

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—By unanimously voting to request permission of the major leagues to place a club on the north side of Chicago, every club owner in the American association put himself on record as favoring the expansion of the league, at the annual meeting held at the Auditorium Annex Sunday and the transfer of the St. Paul club to the Windy city next season may be taken as an assured fact.

The association intends to build into a major league, on a peaceful basis if possible, and to this end President J. D. O'Brien of Milwaukee was appointed a committee of one to confer with the national commission in Cincinnati on Jan. 6. O'Brien will present the association's request and will voice the arguments with which various club owners have filled the papers during the last two months.

This action was taken without a dissenting vote. It was rumored early in the day that Bryce, Watkins and Armour would oppose such a move. When the matter came to a vote, however, the three owners mentioned were the first to urge the step. They were heartily supported by the other four club owners, all of whom believe that the time is ripe for the placing of a club in Chicago.

The action of the association, though not unexpected by those close to the situation, created a sensation in baseball circles here last night. The question was the sole topic of discussion in the lobbies of the Annex and at the headquarters of prominent baseball men. President Comiskey of the White Sox hobbled with the association managers as though they were brother leaguers. He refused to talk, but it is known that he heartily supports the contentions of the American association leaders that a third club will not affect the patronage of either the Sox or the Cubs.

All sides of the situation were freely discussed. Some predict that the national commission will claim it has no jurisdiction in the matter and will neither grant permission nor turn down the request. Others believe that the commission will turn down the proposition flatfooted, while there are many who predict that the national body will say "yes."

MENASHA COMPANY WORST FOND DU LAC

MENASHA, Wis., Dec. 31.—The company E basketball team defeated the Fond du Lac traction team here by a score of 41 to 13. Company E was defeated by company A at Fond du Lac by a score of 22 to 19 in a hard fought game. Company I will play company M of Oconto, the Port Washington Maroons, Bushey of Appleton, the St. Joseph five of Two Rivers, and the Tannum five of New York here during January.

STATE HOSPITAL A MODEL

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 31.—(Special.)—A replica of the Wisconsin State Tuberculosis sanatorium at Wales, Wis., will be sent to the International Congress on Tuberculosis, which will be held in Washington, D. C., in September, 1908, as a model institution, and it will be entered in competition for the $1,000 prize. The general state committee appointed at the recent meeting in Milwaukee, will raise $5,000 to gather a comprehensive exhibit. The Wales sanatorium is built along the most modern lines, and many eminent tuberculosis specialists have been visiting Dr. Chester A. Panell, the superintendent, and secured copies of the plans. Dr. M. P. Ravenel of Wisconsin university, Madison, is chairman of the general state committee.

BOWLERS URGED TO SEND IN ENTRIES

APPLICATIONS MUST BE IN BY JANUARY THIRD

LATE COMERS TO BE REJECTED

State Association Hangs Up Gold Medals for Winners of the Various Pin Events.

Local bowlers are being urged to use a little more haste in sending in their entries for the state bowling tournament which will open in Milwaukee Jan. 11. Abe Langtry, who is conducting the tourney says that all entries must be in by midnight Jan. 3, and that all received after that time will be rejected.

"We need at least a week to prepare the schedule and to mail copies of it to the various teams throughout the state," he says. "In a tournament as important as the state event, a great deal of time is required to arrange the schedule and to put things in order generally, and we do not propose to wait for tardy entries. Any entry received after the time stipulated will positively be thrown out. I just want to give the bowlers timely warning, so that they will have nobody but themselves to blame if their entries are rejected."

"The Milwaukee bowlers are generally the last to come in. One would think that being so close and hearing so much about the tournament, they would enter early, but they don't. The state bowlers are generally the first to come in. Several outside teams have already sent in their entries and the outlook is so encouraging that I expect more state teams here than the total number of fives in the Madison tourney last year. There were fifty-eight teams last year, but I look for at least 90 next month. At least that is the way it looks from the number of entries and letters I have already received."

There will be an added incentive for the bowlers in the coming tournament. A gold medal emblematic of the state championship will be given to the winners of each event. There will be eight medals in all, one for the winner of the individual event, and one each for the members of the winning two man and five man teams.

The political headquarters during the tournament will be at the Plankinton house. All the committee meetings will be held there as well as the election of officers for the coming year. The election will take place Jan. 15.

DATES COMPLETED FOR CUE MATCHES

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Dates have been fixed and all engaged for the first two big billiard matches of the season, Jacob Schaefer meeting Albert Cutler, the Boston challenger, in Philadelphia, on Jan. 23, at 18.1 ball line, and George Sutton playing Ora Morningstar in New York, Monday evening, Jan. 27, at 18.2 ball line.

The two contests are for the world's championship emblem, now held by Schaefer and Sutton, and $500 a side, as provided in the rules governing the emblems and gate receipts.

The challengers are two of the youngest in the profession and as they have developed great speed in the style of game for which emblem they have challenged, their contests with the old masters should be of special interest.

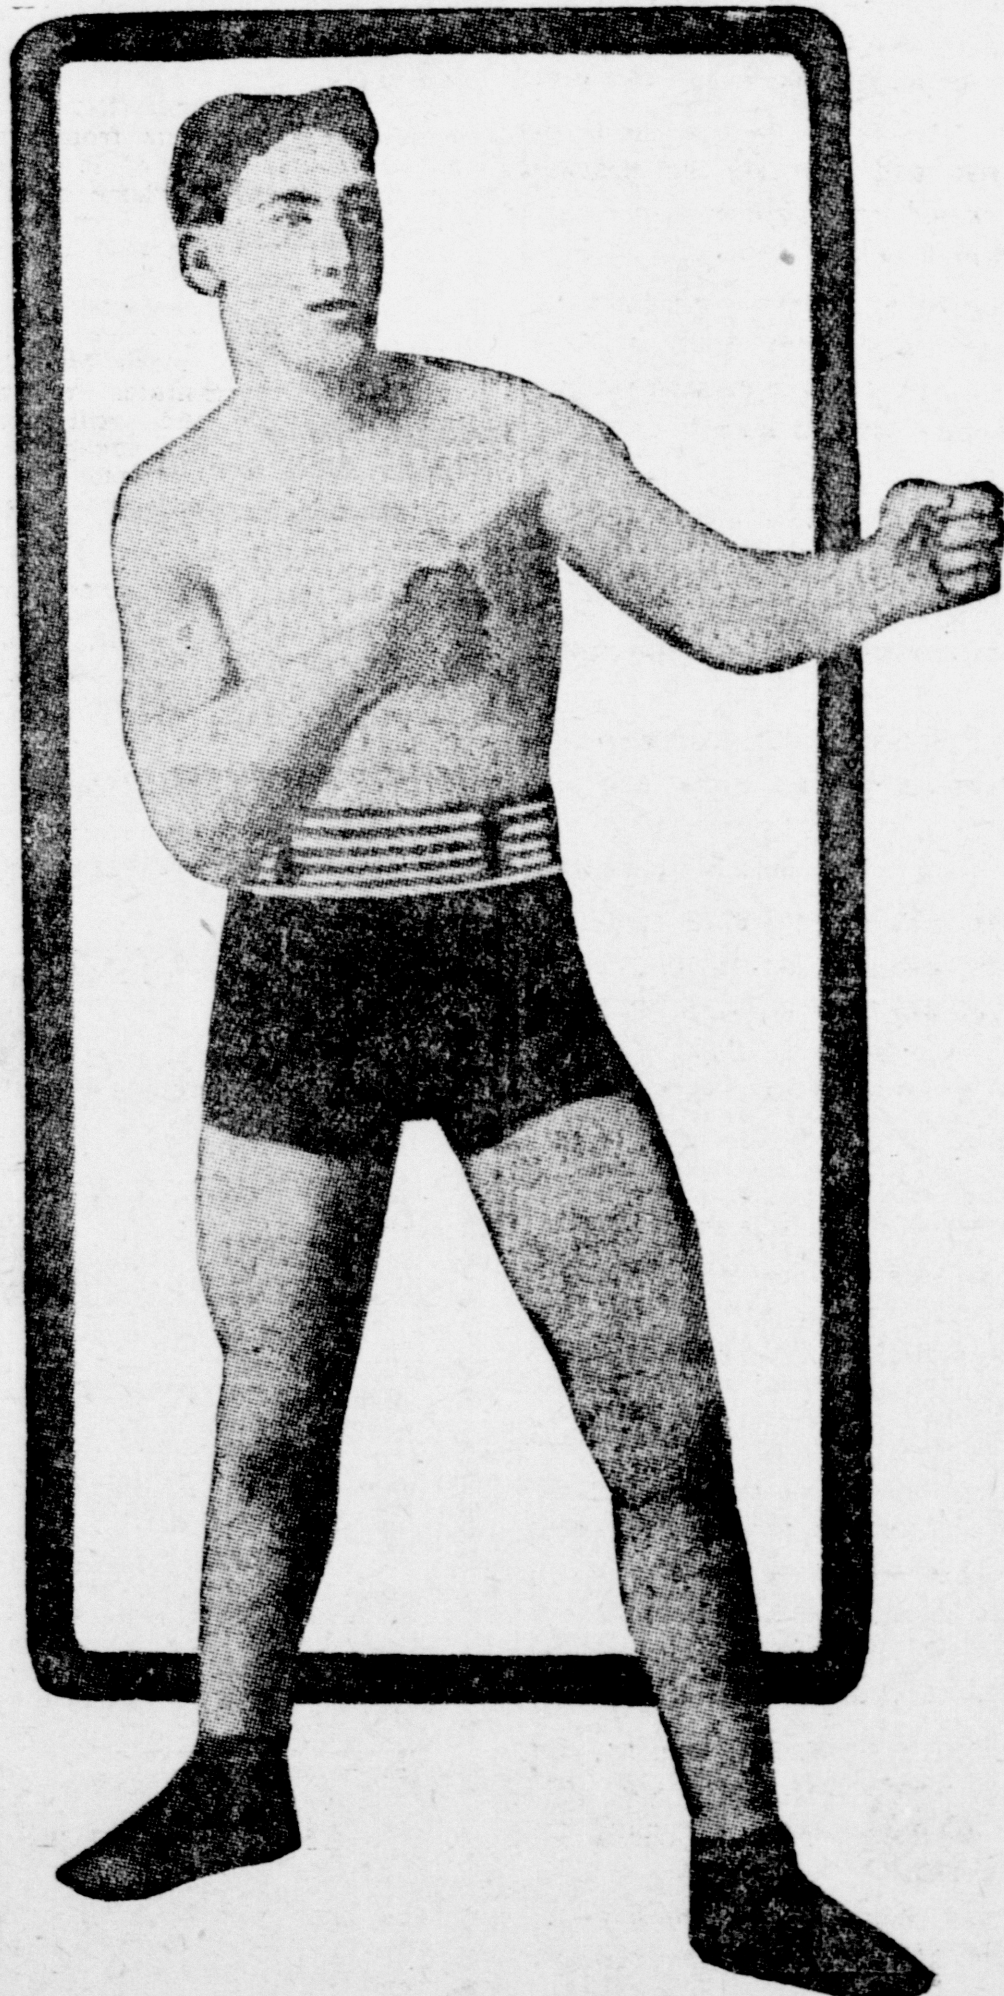

Cutler will practice in Boston and Schaefer in Chicago for their game, the latter coming east about two weeks before the match. Sutton returned to Chicago on Saturday and will meet Schaefer in an exhibition game at both 18.1 and 18.2 ball line in St. Louis, Milwaukee and other western cities. Sutton will come east about Jan. 14, and finish his practice here. Morningstar is in St. Louis, but will come east two weeks before the game here.

REVIEW OF WORLD EVENTS FOR 1907

EACH DAYS RECORD BRIEFLY TOLD IN CHRONOLOGY

HISTORY IN PARAGRAPHS

Story of Politics, Deaths, Quakes, Sports and all the Miscellany Of Life Told Here.

It was predicted that the year 1907 would be one of widespread disaster in America. Early in the year the island of Jamaica was visited by an earthquake which nearly destroyed the business portion of Kingston. A second quake visited the island in June. Chile was also visited in June by severe shocks. Calabria province, Italy, scene of frequent quakes, was again shaken in October, a disturbance nearly simultaneous with one in Russian Turkestan, where 12,000 lives were lost by shocks which destroyed the town of Karatagh.

Notable fires of the year were the conflagration at San Francisco in April, the Cincinnati fire of Aug. 22 and one the same day in Pittsburgh. The losses in these fires aggregated $5,000,000. Springfield, Mass.; Amsterdam, N. Y.; Lancaster, Pa.; Youngstown, O., and Harrisburg, Pa., also suffered heavily from flames. The collapse of the cantilever bridge at Quebec, resulting in the death of eighty-four workmen, was among the calamities of the year. Many distressing mining accidents occurred in America and Europe. The chief strike of the year was that of the telegraphers, which began in August, but did not seriously affect business.

The second peace conference at The Hague was one of the events of 1907. The final act of the congress before adjournment in October was a recapitulation of the thirteen conventions actually agreed upon by that body, none of which is binding except upon such powers as sign them before the last day of June, 1908. Of these conventions nine refer exclusively to warfare, three deal with the immediate circumstances of war, and only one has to do with the direct prevention or prohibition of war. The list appears as follows:

- First.—The peaceful regulation of international conflicts.
- Second.—Providing for an international prize court.
- Third.—Regulating the rights and duties of neutrals on land.
- Fourth.—Regulating the rights and duties of neutrals at sea.
- Fifth.—Covering the laying of submarine mines.
- Sixth.—The bombardment of towns from the sea.
- Seventh.—The matter of the collection of contractual debts.
- Eighth.—The transformation of merchantmen into warships.
- Ninth.—The treatment of captured crews.
- Tenth.—The inviolability of fishing boats.
- Eleventh.—The inviolability of the postal service.
- Twelfth.—The application of the Geneva convention and the Red Cross to sea warfare.
- Thirteenth.—The laws and customs regulating land warfare.

Two wars disturbed the peace of nations, but were of brief duration. Trouble began in Morocco in March, when the French troops occupied the Moroccan town of Oudja. Casablanca was attacked by Moors in July, and after several conflicts between French and Spanish ships and native land troops, in which cavalry figured largely, the Moors accepted terms of peace offered by France in September. In February Honduras declared war on Nicaragua, and in April the Nicaraguans ended the strife as victors, no severe battle taking place.

In July the emperor of Korea abdicated in favor of the crown prince, and Japan assumed full control of Korean affairs. Russia was disturbed by numerous assassinations of prominent officials, among them a chief of police at St. Petersburg. The czar dissolved the second duma in June for insubordination, and a third duma elected to co-operate with the ministry convened in November. Considerable war talk resulted from the authorization of the dispatching of a fleet of United States warships from the Atlantic to the Pacific, especially in view of the anti-Japanese feeling shown in San Francisco early in the year. In spite of the rumored hostility of the mikado's subjects toward this country, our secretary of war was hospitably received by Japanese officials on his visit to Tokyo. While in the far east Secretary Taft inaugurated the first Philippine assembly.

Several notable balloon flights were made during the year, the Marconi system of wireless service across the Atlantic opened for commercial traffic, the steam turbine was demonstrated a success for ocean travel, the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of English settlers at Jamestown, Va., was commemorated by an international exposition, and a phenomenal gain for receiving railway rebates was laid against the Standard Oil companies.

The mortality list of 1907 included many distinguished authors, artists, scientists, soldiers and celebrities in various walks of life. Among the Americans who died during the year were Thomas Bailey Aldrich, the poet; Mary J. Holmes and A. C. Gunter, novelists; General Russell A. Alger, O. B. Willcox, M. H. Blunt and T. H.

Ruger, veterans of the civil war; John T. Morgan and Edmund W. Pettus, United States senators from Alabama; Galusha A. Grow, formerly noted congressman; E. H. Conger, who was United States minister at Peking during the Boxer war; Mrs. William McKinley, widow of the martyred president; Mrs. Agassiz, widow of the great scientist, and Isabella Beecher Hooker, last of the children of Rev. Lyman Beecher. John Alexander Dowrie, the Zionist leader, died during the year; also Theodore Tilton, formerly prominent in America, who had lived in Paris for a generation.

Richard Mansfield, the actor, and Saint Gaudens, the sculptor, Americans by adoption and long association, died during the year. Notable deaths abroad include Alexander Herschel, English astronomer; Maurice Loewy, director of the Paris observatory and called the dean of astronomers; Joachim, Hungarian violinist; Edvard Grieg, Norwegian composer; the shah of Persia, and Princess Clementine, daughter of King Louis Philippe of France, a relic of past glories, who attained the age of ninety; also Oscar II. of Sweden.

PICTURES WILL WORK WONDERS

In improving the appearance of the home. They reflect the taste and refinement of the occupant of the house just as truly as the other furnishings. We have a beautiful assortment of framed and sheet pictures, copies of the "old masters"—artists' proofs of the best work of modern artists, pen and ink copies—at the reasonable prices. Indeed, you will be surprised what a change you can work in the appearance of a room by the addition of a few carefully selected pictures. We also give special attention to the framing of pictures and carry in stock a large line of artistic mouldings. If you have pictures that need reframing or unframed pictures of any kind, we would be pleased to give you an estimate on the cost of framing.

HELLO-BILL-OMANIA!

men believe about as Mr. Bryan believes, and that is why they defer
to him.

Talk as they will about Bryan being "down and out," the republican leaders will do well to nominate a man after Roosevelt's own heart, for
with Candidate Bryan in the running,
the 1908 presidential race will not be a walk-away for anybody. The public has too much "horse sense" to let pass unnoticed the inconsistency
that would praise Roosevelt, La Follette and Hughes in one breath and condemn Bryan, the "daddy" of them
all, in the next.

Herbert Knox Smith has told the Standard crowd "where to head in."
The logic of his answer to President
Moffett is so clear and convincing that one wonders by what means the Oil Trust will attempt to deny its complicity in a pernicious and successful rebating scheme.

Every once in a while some of the facts creep into the record in the Harden trial, despite the efficient
censorship of the German government.

Again Horace McKinley has been
"run to ground," and if the authorities don't watch out, he will sell them
a bogus deed to the "ground."

FASHION HINTS

(By May Mantion.)

5860 Shirt Waist or Blouse,
32 to 42 bust.

(To be made with or without frills
and with or without the fitted lining.)

No other garment quite takes the place of the simple tailored shirt
waist. It is thoroughly useful, thoroughly serviceable and suits so great
a number of occasions that no woman
thinks of being without a generous supply. This one is equally well adapted to expensive wash fabrics to silk and to wool and will be found admirable both for plain colors and for figured stuffs. In the illustration it is made of plain colored taffeta with trimming of ribbon frills
but these frills could be of the plated sort that can be purchased ready for use or in the case of washable
materials could be of the same, gathered or embroidered as liked. If something simpler is desired the frills could be omitted altogether and
the fronts finished simply with the regulation box plait.

The waist consists of the fitted lining, the fronts and the back. The back is tucked to give tapering lines
to the figure while the fronts are tucked to yoke depth only, being becomingly full below that point. There is a regulation box plait at the center
and the neck is finished with a neck-band so that any collar or stock can be worn with it. The sleeves are in regulation style, finished with overlaps and straight cuffs.

The quantity of material required
for the medium size is 3 1/2 yards 21
or 24, 3 1/4 yards 32 or 2 yards 44
inches wide, 1 1/4 yards of plaited
frilling or 2 yards of ribbon for gathered frills.

The pattern 5860 is cut in sizes
for a 32 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department
of this paper on receipt of ten cents.
(If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

FARMERS, FINANCE AND BACK-
BONES.

(Philadelphia Record.)

The farmers are the true backbone of the nation, whether in time of peace or war. But from the out-start of the republic, while they have been content to bear the brunt of the fighting and of furnishing bread
and meat and raiment on which to subsist, they have modestly turned over to their fellow-citizens engaged
in other pursuits the task of running the government. There are signs of a change. The farmers are getting tired of carrying the load without any proper and equitable voice in the direction of affairs. It will be a most auspicious change for the better when the Grangers shall assert themselves and assume their rightful
and necessary share in regulating the politics of the country. They pay the main share of taxes, which are so laid as to heavily discriminate against them. They should help to fix the rates. They are in fairness entitled,
as the main producers of revenue, to mainly profit by its distribution. They should insist on a suitable control of expenditure.

At the Boarding House.

Hewitt—What are you going to give the landlady for Christmas?
Jewett—I'm going to send her a copy of the pure food law.—Town
pics.

Philadelphia's welcome to the great Elks' convention was magnificent. People searched their memories in vain to recall a parallel to the gorgeous decorations, and novel pageant. The mighty hosts that crowded every available inch along
the route, themselves make a scene of unparalleled vivacity. All these phases of the great convention are reproduced at Lyman H. Howe's new program of moving pictures in the La Crosse theatre tonight and naturally are not only very picturesque,
but of absorbing interest. Through important concessions granted exclusively to Mr. Howe, he was enabled to secure far more commanding and admirable views than any other photographers. This is made quite evident by the scope of the pictures themselves. The Court of Honor on Broad street makes that avenue look like a veritable fairyland. Adequate description of the scenes is impossible. They can never be forgotten by observed nor observers. Nearly every state in the union is represented by lodges in the parade
and everybody seems to be an Elk,
in spirit, at least. The good nature of the crowds is well depicted.
Another superb feature of Mr.
Howe's new program shows the great naval attack and maneuvers recently reviewed by King Edward VII.
and visiting royalty. It shows the drills and amusements on board battleships, a realistic torpedo attack,
and sub-marines in cruising trim
with only their conning towers visible. The paths of the torpedoes
through the sea is plainly shown.
Yachting at Cowes, England, and a stag hunt in France are best described as true "Masterpieces in animated photography" and like the scenes of the Victoria Falls in Africa
by dawn, sunset and moonlight, forms scenes of infinite beauty. A new drill by the Reedham Orphans,
a ride on the front of a locomotive
through Switzerland and many others
make the new program the most remarkable in point of beauty and interest that Mr. Howe has ever presented.

At the Bijou.

The many Bijou patrons will be entertained in peering and varied ways by the program which the management presents.

Stutzman and Crawford in a comedy sketch are fairly good—their medley making quite a hit. Seamon and Burns in a comedy and singing
sketch introduced some good songs
and the tenor voice is of good quality. The baritone is a little harsh.
The four Shamons are extremely interesting in appearance, their singing, however, lacks in rhythm and they don't put quite enough vim into their song. Their dancing is very satisfactory and the changes of costume which they introduce are good.
The dance of the young boy of the group was splendidly done and very pleasing, although he hardly looks strong enough to do a dance of such length. The little member which comes on at the last is a captivating
little youngster and makes a great hit. The headliners this week are Lopez and Lopez, Spanish Instrumentalists, introducing a beautiful
stage setting and numerous musical novelties.

The stage presents a gorgeous
combination of colored electric lights,
and their first number called, "In Nature's Garden," is given with flowered effects thrown on the stage forming a striking effect. The "Gondolier," played on tumbler of water with moist hands, to piano accompaniment is very good. The Senorita's Spanish solo was sung
well and the duet at the close very pretty.

This is the best musical turn seen at the Bijou this season. Mr. La Vallie has more opportunity this week to show off his really good
voice in "Good Bye, Sweetheart, Good Bye," than usual. It is a beautiful song and excellently sung.
The moving pictures which are interesting, being a chapter out of the history of Mies Standish, John Alden and Priscilla, close the show.

An Illustration of Confidence.

John D. Crimmins, one of the builders of New York's $13,000,000
Plaza hotel, said recently at a dinner:

"The public confidence in capital
was great at the time this magnificent hotel was projected. Now, with the public confidence in capital so weak, it would be impossible to put
such a project through again.

"For capital," said Mr. Crimmins,
"though apparently so superior and
strong, really depends on public confidence. Without public confidence it lies idle and useless. Hence, in its heart, capital respects the public;
in fact, it is like the man who lay ill
with a nervous disorder.

"The doctor, after he had examined this man a little, shook his head severely.

"Just tell me, will you?" he said,
"how much whisky you have been averaging daily?"

"The sick man cast a timid look
at the door and whispered:

"Say, doc, if you don't mind, just go outside and see if my old woman
is listening at the keyhole, will you?"

Didn't Try a Fork.

Guest (to waiter)—I can't eat this
soup.

Waiter takes it away and brings
another kind of soup.

Guest—I can't eat this soup.

Waiter, angrily, but silently, for
the third time brings another kind.

Guest (again)—I can't eat this
soup.

Waiter, furiously, calls the hotel
proprietor.

Proprietor (to guest)—Why can't
you eat this soup?

Guest (quietly)—Because I have no spoon.—London Tit-Bits.

ROSEMARY
IN SEARCH OF A
FATHER
BY
C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

"How much in love is that handsome young monsieur!" thought the mademoiselle of the shop, with a little sigh for some of the wonders of the world which she had missed and must always miss. Her heels were appallingly high, and her waist was incredibly small, but she had a heart, and there was no heart which would not have softened to Hugh and wished
him the best of good luck this day.

The next window which attracted the young man's eye was one which displayed just such a dress as he had vaguely pictured yesterday for a
dear companion on the terrace. It was white, of course, and he was not sure, but he thought it was made of cloth. Anyway, there was a lot of embroidery on it full of little holes which somehow contrived to be extraordinarily fetching. It had a mantle which hung in soft folds, marvelously intricate, yet simple in effect, and he could have fallen upon the neck of the stout powdered lady in black silk who assured him that the costume could be worn without alteration by any dame de jolie taille.

He bought it instantly and then seized upon precisely such a "long white thing" of ermine as he had seen in his mind's eye. A "granny" muff went with it. Really the people of the shop must have had prophetic souls! And there was a white hat, with a gold buckle and a long white ostrich feather which looked as if it had been born to shade
the face of Evelyn Clifford.

When these "confections" had been secured madame of the black satin and powdered nose assured monsieur that his Christmas purchases would be incomplete without a certain blouse which, to an untutored eye, appeared to be a combination of sea foam and rose leaves. There was a belt, too, crusted with seed pearls, and a hanging bag to match. Oh, certainly monsieur would take these and anything else which madame could conscientiously recommend! She could and did recommend several other things, and no doubt it was a mere coincidence that they happened to be among the most expensive in the shop. She also won Hugh's gratitude by being able to produce a coat and a frock in which a little girl of five, already beautiful, would be more akin to fairyhood than ordinary childhood and might become the "exception that would prove the rule" to an unbelieving Jane.

The cloak was pale blue, and another shop
had to be searched for a hat to be worn with it, but madame was most kind in directing monsieur where to find one. Her sister would serve him; therefore he would be well served.

On the way he passed a jeweler's, and exactly the right string of pearls and the right
"swallow brooch" stared him in the face in the window. It was odd how all the prettiest
things in the world of whatever description
looked as if they ought to belong to Evelyn
and Rosemary Clifford. There was a gold bag,
too, but that was a detail, for really the principal thing he had called for was a ring with a single diamond in it—
and perhaps—well, yes, that little sapphire band to keep it on a slender finger.

The rings, in their delicate cases, he put into his pocket when he had paid, but the other purchases were to go in that very same now which had been impressed upon the florist—the sort of now to which Riviera shopkeepers are accustomed only when they deal with Americans.

Then madame's sister was found, and a blue hat, and there was just time left for a frantic rush to a toyshop round a corner and up a hill. Perhaps Doll Evie might be jealous of one rival, but there's safety in numbers, and Hugh thought that a dozen assorted sizes from life size down would keep a doll's house from echoing with loneliness.

As for the presents for the Eze children, Rosemary was to choose them herself by and by, but all these special things were to be served up, so to speak, at the Hotel Pension Beau Soleil with early breakfast.

When he had finished—which means when he had bought everything he could think of—Hugh looked at his watch. It was half an hour to the minute since he had left his hotel.

"I don't see why it should take women a long time to shop," said
he to himself. "It seems to me the simplest thing in the world. You just see what you want, and then
you buy it."

It was not until all the boxes
and parcels must have arrived in the Condomine that an agonizing thought struck Hugh. What if Evie should be offended with him
for buying her things to wear?
What if she should imagine him
capable of thinking that the things
she already had were not good enough when she was coming out
with him?

He suddenly felt a hundred years old. "Ass—worm—menagerie!" he anathematized himself.

It was now 9:30. At 10:45 he was to call at the Hotel Pension Beau Soleil to take Evelyn and Rosemary to the English church. How could he bear the suspense till then—how endure it not to know whether he had ruined the Christmas which was to have been so perfect?

Expert Answers.
Dear Editor:
Why is it, since the sun has reached the farthest point south and is now coming nearer again, will we have all our cold weather coming,
instead of when the sun was farthest
away?

We, too, puzzled, are puzzled, also somewhat puzzled, by your surprising inquiry. How on earth do you suppose we know why it grows colder as the sun comes nearer? This,
we should say, indicates that all of our heat does not come from the sun. Of course some of it comes from the subscriber whose middle initial was printed wrong, some from
the lawyer who was not mentioned in the case he won, while his name
always appears when he loses, some of the heat comes from the subscriber whose paper blows off the porch and necessitates wading
through the snow, and still more
from the fellow whose engagement
is announced by funny friends, when he is not engaged. All these things, puzzled, go to puzzle us on this heat
question. You might ask us why,
after a series of disasters, some clairvoyant announces he predicted the whole thing. This we could answer,
but we can give no scientific explanation of the puzzle you propound.

My Dear Sir:
Why is it that when a fellow who is an ordinary dub at home, goes away he at once assumes the management of whatever large concern

to which he attaches himself?

AMBITIOUS.
Ambitious, you certainly have us beat. We suppose it is because he thinks the home folks never will see
into his pay envelope or make any unpleasant discoveries in regard to the soup house he calls home. Most of 'em, however, grow tired of the great responsibilities which attach to managing these large concerns and are satisfied to come home thin and haggard and take a job at a reasonable sum.

Dear Life:
Could you give me a recipe to remove pimples, blackheads, warts,
freckles, tan, chap, and wrinkles from
my face?

HELEN.
Yes, Helen, remove the face.

MILWAUKEE WILL ABANDON STATIONS

NEEDS OPERATORS AT THE LARGER PLACES

TRY NORTHWESTERN PLAN

Other Lines Also Find it Impossible To Secure the Required Number of Telegraphers

The announcement a few days ago that the Milwaukee road would probably reduce the number of minor stations to get a sufficient number of telegraph operators to comply with the state eight-hour law covering the employment of operators, has been followed by a definite announcement of the adoption of this plan. The Northwestern road is trying to get additional operators, but will probably be compelled to close some of its smaller offices to meet the exigencies of the situation. It is said that the Wisconsin Central has cut out instruments in no fewer than thirty-eight places; but little credence is given among the operators to the report that the Central is going to fight the eight-hour law. The national law, requiring that telegraphers be employed no longer than nine hours a day, becomes effective next March so that a contest in the state would leave little to gain.

The Milwaukee road announces that instruments will be cut out at Neshotah, Ixonia, Watertown, Marshall, Windsor, Arlington, Poyntown, Richwood, Elba, Fall River, Doylestown, Wyocena, Lyndon, West, Melina, Westby and Cashton. However, additional operators will be put on at wages ranging from $55 to $60 at West Allis, Duplainville, Oconomowoc, Watertown Junction, Hubbleton, Waterloo, Sun Prairie, Reesville, Columbus, Oakdale, Tomah, Tunnel City, Raymore, Sparta, Bargon, West Salem, Medary and North La Crosse.

There will be a conference between the telegraphers and railway officials shortly after Jan. 1 to discuss a new wage scale. It is not expected that there will be any reduction, despite the reduced hours.

SMALL WRECK ON MILWAUKEE ROAD

A small wreck at Raymore on the La Crosse division, east of Sparta, on the Milwaukee road, yesterday, delayed traffic on the main line for a short time while the tracks were being cleared by the wrecking crew from the North Side. The wreck was caused by a couple of cars of an extra going off the track. Otherwise than delaying the fast mail, no material damage was done.

NICK ADDES HAS KICK ON PRIEST

SAYS REV. SALMONE MADE A "SHOT" AT HIM

AIRS HIS ANIMOSITY TODAY

Member of North Side Syrian Colony Hints Charges Against Priest in His Statement

According to Nick Addes, a resident of the Syrian colony on the North Side, Reverend Salmone is not satisfactory to all the Syrians as priest among the Syrians in La Crosse.

The trouble started when Father Salmone, at mass at the St. James church recently, said that heretics in a family were sometimes God's way of punishing people. Nick Addes, who has never been a champion of Rev. Salmone, immediately took this as personal to him. Addes' wife died recently, and as Addes has refused to obey the priest's orders he claims that the priest took this method of taking a "shot" at him.

He also makes charges as to the way the priest is conducting the affairs, particularly the money affairs of the new church. According to Addes: when the church was being built a society was formed, under the supervision of the priest, to take charge of the affairs of the church. A president, secretary and treasurer were elected, the priest heading them all. The officers of this society were to be shown all the money raised for the church, but Addes claims that Salmone assumed full control and practically ran the things himself. When some of the other members of the society asked him about the accounts he told them that that was alright and that he would settle things up with them later. This he has failed to do, Addes says. When he was further pressed for details as to how much had been raised he said that he was sorry that he had ever organized the society and in plain words said that he didn't want them to "butt in" on the church affairs, according to Addes.

Addes also charges that Salmone has "cursed the sky and time" that he came to La Crosse. Addes says he said this in the presence of Abraham Addes of 300 Mill street. Nick Addes claims that the Syrian colony in La Crosse is better than any other in the country as far as good behavior and other things goes and that Salmone's alleged statement was unwarranted.

Nick Addes also claims that the priest is not doing his duty when he refuses to visit any of the other members of the colony except Asphor and suggests that the inscription on the corner stone of the church be changed from "Syrian Catholic church" to "Salmone's and Asphor's church."

According to Addes the priest and Asphor are very thick and the home of Asphor is the priest's headquarters, he refusing to visit any of the other members of the colony. It is the desire of Addes to have the priest visit all of the homes in the colony and thus "hold down his job," he says.

"I have been a resident of La Crosse for the past six years," said Addes, "and this is the first trouble I have gotten into. The whole thing is caused simply by my refusing to accept him (Salmone) as a God and do everything he tells me to."

Rev. Salmone when asked regarding his alleged statement to the effect that the death of Mrs. Addes was God's punishment to Addes, he said that he might have said something about God having the power to punish, and that if any of the members of the congregation chose to take his remarks as personal, of course that was their own business.

THREE MAN TRICK BEGINS ON THE "Q"

Tomorrow the three man trick will begin at the Burlington yard office when Robert Hickey will take his place as the third man at the key. The Burlington 8-hour day will then have been established.

It has been said many times in the past that the life of the operators is a responsible and a strenuous one and should therefore not necessitate long hours, such as would bring on fatigue at a moment perhaps when much presence of mind was needed when authority should be placed in his hands.

There has been some rumor of a reduction of wages for the operators also but this has not yet been officially announced.

Mr. Hickey is a brother of George Hickey of the Burlington and has been operating for some time at Prescott and other stations along the route.

The other two operators are A. Hanson and Edward Betzel. Betzel has been the day operator there for several years.

VOTE-BERGER CO. COMPLETES MOVE

The work of moving into the new quarters has been finished by the Vote-Berger company and everything is running smoothly in the new factory. Every department with the exception of the woodworking and found finishing department will remain on the North side during the winter and will probably be moved south in the spring.

The rumor that has been going the rounds to the effect that the plant would be closed down from January 1st to February 1st has been denied by M. I. Berger, manager of the company. He says that not even a man has been laid off.

OPERATORS TO HAVE EIGHT HOUR DAY

Word has been received from the operators of the Burlington road that they will put on the 8-hour day on the first of January.

It is not known whether their salaries will be changed, but it has been reported that the wages will be reduced.

The operators for the Milwaukee road on the North side will also have an 8-hour day at that time.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS LA CROSSE

Herman Groezinger of Minneota, Minn., is here on a visit. Mr. Groezinger is well known in La Crosse, having resided here for a number of years and was a barber on Caledonia street. He has been in Minneota for the last eight years and has made two visits to La Crosse, the first being about four years ago. He will return to his home Thursday.

TO BRING BACK SON

Conductor Orton of the "Q" left this morning for Chicago to bring home his young son who ran away from home last week. The boy became entranced with theatrical life when the Garce Hayward company was in town and left here presuming to be with the company. He has been gone for two or three days and no trace was found of him until yesterday when it was learned that he was in Chicago.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Mosely, who is an explorer of some note, has just returned from an extended expedition in Africa.

COLLEGE BAND PLAYS "THE MERRY WIDOW"

Those who enjoyed the waltzes played at the Charity ball last Friday will not forget the waltzes from "The Merry Widow," as played by Kreutz's orchestra for the occasion.

For the last twenty-five years no light opera succeeded in so completely captivating European and American audiences as has "The Merry Widow" from which the waltzes are taken, and during the season of 1906-07 every European city from Rome to Copenhagen and Christiania had spasms of "widowcraziness," a term applied to everyone who whistled or sang the melodies of the opera.

The dreamlike waltz melodies upon which the opera is constructed are the cause of the immense success of the piece and when produced at New York "The College Widow" was forgotten in the excitement which followed. Although the production has not come west yet, the musical organizations are fast getting familiar with the music and programming the selections.

The first concert program at La Crosse include the waltzes from this piece, will be the programs given by the St. Olaf College Band tomorrow afternoon and evening at the La Crosse theatre. The staid and musical programs of this famous organization have been modified to the extent of introducing a piece for which the public is clamoring and the success has been spontaneous. The combination of Lehar waltz melodies and a bunch of collegians is a happy one and one which is certain to make the people start the year right in the line of popular whistling.

It would not be surprising if next week prices should advance a little further, but think that if they do the insider will sell stocks. Do not look for any permanent upward movement for some time.

FALLS UNDER TRAIN

BLACKDUCK, Dec. 31.—Frank Jeffers of Crookston, who was in the employ of the McKenzie-Robbins company as commercial traveler, was run over by the northbound passenger train on the M. & L. railway here and sustained injuries whereby one foot was entirely severed and the other foot severed so as to leave only the heel.

Jeffers was taken to the Monahan & Osborne hospital in this village, where one foot was amputated above the ankle and the other foot trimmed from the heel.

Jeffers, with a suit case in his hand, attempted to board the train after the conductor had shouted "All aboard." Jeffers grabbed the iron railing on the car, but the suit case caught in some manner and he slipped and fell under the wheels.

SOCIETY

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BALL
LAST NIGHT BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR
One of the most artistic of dances was the one given last evening by the Knights of Columbus in Germania hall.

The prevailing colors were green and white and an elaborate idea of an evergreen forest was successfully carried out. Aisles of green banked the stairways and from the first moment of entering the hall the fragrant aroma of the forest filled the air. The balconies were tastefully arranged with a hedge of low evergreen trees which partially concealed the small supper tables which were placed at intervals around it. The small pillars of the balconies were wound in white and long streamers of white bunting were draped from the center of the ceiling to the different corners of the room. Over each table was suspended a Japanese lantern and inverted Japanese parasols gave an added touch of color to the scene.

The rest corners on the main floor were cozily arranged with rustic seats and rugs. The stage was the center of attraction and one of the prettiest ideas imaginable was carried out in its adornment. A rustic bridge was seen and under this flowed a real river, its banks forming a most ideal spot. The orchestra was seated in the midst of beautiful verdure and foliage which formed a striking background. Altogether the appearance of the hall was a delight and much credit is due to Mr. Funk who originated the idea.

Many handsome costumes were worn by the women and assisted materially in beautifying the scene. The reception committee was composed of the following individuals:

Dr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Dengler, Mr. Armand Langenbach and Miss Viola Doerflinger.

Preliminary to the dancing a program of concert numbers was given by Kreutz's complete orchestra which was much enjoyed. The guests remained until a late hour and the ball proved an entire success. The following is the program played for the dancing:

Grand March and Two-Step—Minnehaha.

Waltz—Moonlight on the Hudson. Quadrille—Rosabella.

Two-Step—National Emblem. Waltz—Swallows.

Redowa—Zulu. Quadrille—Columbian.

Two-Step—Cheer Up, Mary. Waltz—Merry Widow.

Two-Step—Keep a Little Cozy. Corner in Your Heart for Me.

Waltz—Danube Waves. Quadrille—In Military Style.

Waltz—Enchantress. Two-Step—Lemon in the Garden of Love.

Waltz—Waltz With Me. Two-Step—Whistler and His Dog.

Quadrille—Good Humor Quadrille. Waltz—Flower of St. Petersburg.

Two-Step—Much Obligated. Waltz—Pearl of Pekin.

Two-Step—Teddy Bear. Waltz—Thousand and One Nights.

Two-Step—Waiting. Waltz—Impassioned Dreams.

COMING DANCES.

Tonight at the Germania hall will occur the "Sylvester Ball," the event of the year in German society circles.

Kreutz's full orchestra will furnish the music and the decorations will be most artistic. An elaborate supper will be served as usual and the affair is looked forward to with interest.

The Married Folks' club will have one of their delightful dancing parties on Friday evening in the Masonic temple. The affair will be in the nature of a fancy dress ball and will likely be one of the prettiest events of the season.

The Girls Athletic association of the High school will give a leap year party at the new K. P. hall Thursday evening, Jan. 2.

The high school fraternity, Alpha and Omega party will be given in Coren's hall New Year's night. These two latter events are of especial interest to the younger set and always prove delightful.

MANY WILL KEEP OPEN HOUSE NEW YEAR'S DAY

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Irish of the First M. E. church will keep open house tomorrow at the parsonage, 23 South Eighth street. They will be delighted to meet all their friends at this time.

Open house will also be kept at the Y. M. C. A. New Year's day. A program has been prepared and refreshments will be served.

NORMANNA SAENGERKOR'S ANNUAL NEW YEAR BALL

The annual New Year's ball of the Normanna Saengerkor will be held on Thursday evening at the Frohsinn hall, and the committees in charge are now decorating the hall for the occasion.

A musical program by Kreutz's complete orchestra will begin at 9 o'clock and refreshments will be served at 10:30. Dancing will continue until 2 o'clock and the committee in charge has chartered street cars for the benefit of the North side guests.

WOMAN'S GUILD MEETS THURSDAY

The Woman's guild of Christ Episcopal church will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon with Mesdames Fetter, Farrand and Ford.

INJURED MAN IS RECOVERING

The condition of Edward Peterson, the workman who fell Saturday from a 20-foot scaffolding at the Michel Brewing company's building, is resting easily at the La Crosse hospital. He will no doubt be laid up for about 8 weeks according to Dr. Callahan who is attending him.

The man had a very narrow escape. He struck something on his downward flight and came head-downward through the air, landing upon the frozen ground upon his head and shoulder, which was dislocated besides fracturing an arm near the shoulder. He also had three scalp wounds and his nose was cut.

SMOKE OF FURNACE CAUSES FIRE SCARE

About 2 o'clock this morning Central fire department responded to an alarm at the Lavake grocery store, on Main street, which had been filled with smoke during a brief absence of Mr. Lavake.

The fire was caused by the pipe which leads from the furnace into the chimney and while no blaze had started the woodwork had been scorched to such an extent that there was much smoke in the store. No damage was done.

THE RED MILL TO COME TO LA CROSSE

COMMON SENSE

Lead most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

BAPTISTS BURN CHURCH'S NOTES

UNIQUE CEREMONY AT ANNUAL MEETING LAST NIGHT

CHURCH OFFICERS ELECTED

Reports of Committees and Clerks Show the Church to Be in a Flourishing Condition

The 57th annual meeting of the First Baptist church and society was held Monday night in the church parlors. It was one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the church. The intensest interest was aroused by the report of C. F. Emery, treasurer of the church, which showed that the organization had entirely freed its work of debt.

The meeting opened with short devotional exercises led by the pastor, Mr. Geo. Barrett was then elected clerk pro tem and later unanimously elected as clerk for the church during the coming year.

The various reports submitted were very gratifying and showed the work in all departments to be in a most vigorous condition. The report of the Ladies' Industrial society was especially encouraging, showing that $879 had been raised during the year.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip reported that the two lectures given during the year had been highly successful, both socially and financially. Mr. E. G. Boynton, superintendent of the Sunday school, reported that no part of the church work was more gratifying than the work in the Sunday school. The largest attendance in the history of the school had been reached during the year, making a most substantial growth.

The financial statement of the church was presented by C. F. Emery. For a number of years the church had carried the burden of a floating debt of $1,500. A little over a year and a half ago the Ladies' Industrial society assumed that obligation as a debt of their organization on the basis that the church people remodel and redecorate the auditorium at an expense of $2,500. The work was done and December 30, 1907, was set as the time when those financial obligations should be met. Throughout the year, plans for the meeting of all the debts had been formulated and last night at the annual meeting, the complete success of the effort was announced. The report of Mr. Emery for the two years in which this special work has been going on, show that nearly $11,000 had been necessary to do the work that the First Baptist church has done. During the time of this expansion of the local field there has also been enlarged contributions to missionary objects outside the city. This is the first time within the recollection of many of the members of the church when the financial year was closed with all the obligations fully met. As a special mark of appreciation for the magnificent work done by the Ladies' Industrial society the church extended a hearty vote of thanks to that organization.

The officers elected for the coming year were as follows: Church clerk—George Barrett. Church treasurer—C. F. Emery. Deacons—E. G. Boynton and Dr. J. W. Hedrick.

Trustees—J. Schriver, P. M. Brink, E. G. Boynton, Chas. Ryndon, H. L. Taylor, C. F. White, Dr. A. T. Rasmussen.

Superintendent of Sunday school—E. G. Boynton. Assistant superintendent of Sunday school—P. M. Brink. Secretary of Sunday school—Ed. Pynn.

Superintendent of Colton chapel—J. Schriver. Assistant superintendent of Colton chapel—L. J. Killian.

The meeting closed with the burning of the church notes to mark the freeing of the church of debt. It was a most impressive and at the same time a most encouraging sight. As Mr. Emery touched the match to the notes the members of the church joined in singing "Bless God From Whom All Blessings Flow." And as the flames died away there was the expression of deepest gratitude on the part of all present.

The annual meeting for 1907 will long be remembered by the First Baptist church.

BALL PROVES SUCCESS.
The fourth annual ball of the local union No. 135, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, held at the Woodmen hall Saturday evening, exceeded all previous efforts in the lavish electrical display shown. The ball was a grand success and about 200 couples enjoyed dancing to the music of Krenz's orchestra.

A feature of the evening was the electrical display. A huge star of various colors revolved from the center of the ceiling while from the balcony lights were thrown about the hall during the evening. Dancing was indulged in from 8 until 3.

O'BRIEN'S CASE IS CONTINUED A WEEK

Dr. D. F. O'Brien, arrested Saturday on a charge of manslaughter in performing alleged operations on a young woman in Vernon county, was taken before the court at Viroqua Saturday and an adjournment was had until January 6, when an examination will be held before Justice Pollard. District Attorney Bennett, now being confined at the local hospital, will be able to appear at that time.

PASSED EXAMINATION SUCCESSFULLY

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures back-ache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. O. T. Erhart.

TO THE KNOWING ONES

Some people are good judges of a watch—a great many are not.

To some a well known make bought by the dealer at a fire sale, or second hand, advertised at an odd low price, seems to touch the spot. This is an easy trade to satisfy.

It is the discriminating buyer—the one who is wise enough to know the best and will have it, that we wish to entertain at our counters.

Don't buy a watch as you would a load of potatoes. Buy it from an exclusive dealer who knows the inner secrets of its delicate mechanism, and would select one for you as he would for himself.

The Parker store is noted for the candid spirit that pervades and dominates every watch sale.

TWO DEER ARE CAPTURED HERE

NEITHER BELONGED TO THE JOHN SALZER HERD

BOTH ARE NOW IN CAPTIVITY

Mr. Salzer Is of the Opinion They Strayed Into This Territory in Search of Food

Two wild deer have been captured during the past few days.

One of them is held in captivity at 916 Tyler street and the other is held at West La Crosse, where it was caught soon after the cold weather set in.

It was at first presumed that they both belonged to John P. Salzer. Mr. Salzer said today: "I have all my deer. None of them have strayed away. I sent a man up to Ferndale yesterday and he reports that my deer are all safe."

These animals must therefore be wild deer strayed into this vicinity. As the woods across from West La Crosse are large and the rice fields grow high a deer could easily secrete himself there without being noticed.

MAY REGULATE SLEEPERS SAYS JUSTICE

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 31.—(Special.)—That Justice W. H. Timlin of the supreme court believes that a law can be passed regulating sleeping cars is indicated from his dissenting opinion, recently filed in the case which held that the law leaving it to the occupant to say whether the unoccupied upper berth shall be closed or not is unconstitutional. He believed the act as passed at the last session was invalid, however. His dissent says:

"But I consider the act in question not a valid exercise of the police power because omitting to the discretion of the occupant of the lower berth the matter of compelling either the raising or the lowering of the upper berth, negative the idea that the law is based upon considerations of public health, peace, morals and safety. So far as anything in the opinion of the court may be fairly understood to imply that the regulation of sleeping cars is not within the field of police power or to imply that this court has any power to declare void an act of the legislature, which does not conflict with some express provisions or reasonable implication of the constitution, and merely because the act is (1) in the opinion of the court unreasonable and (2) a police regulation, I desire to record my dissent therefrom."

GOES TO MEET WITH SCIENTISTS

Niels Hansen, professor of horticulture of the University of South Dakota, at Brookings, S. D., who was sent by the government to investigate the growth of alfalfa in Siberia, has been visiting at the home of the parents of his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pammell, 1222 Madison street.

Prof. Hansen has left for Chicago where he is attending a meeting of the scientists of the world, and will return to the city on Saturday. On Monday, Prof. and Mrs. Hansen will leave for their home at Brookings.

RECEIVES LETTERS FROM SON IN NAVY

MRS. HELEN TURNER'S BOY ON THE LOUISIANA

WRITES OF LIFE IN THE NAVY

Likes the Treatment He Receives and Expects to Enjoy the Trip to the Pacific Coast

Mrs. Helen Turner, 504 Cass street, has received during the past few weeks a number of interesting letters from her son, Asa Turner, who is aboard the U. S. S. Louisiana on the cruise of the fleet to the Pacific.

The young man tells interesting stories of the life at the Brooklyn Navy yards, the regular attendance at the Navy yards' church, and the work aboard the battleships.

He describes the trip from New York to Hampton Roads and the preparations for the inspection by President Roosevelt.

Mr. Turner says he expects to stop at all ports touched and communicate with his parents in this city.

From his letters the young man is thoroughly enjoying his life as a midshipman and expects to have a glorious time during the cruise of the fleet.

JUDGE BELDEN TO HEAR FROHOCK CASE

Judge E. E. Belden, Racine, Wis., will hear the Frohock case in this city on Jan. 8. Judge Fruit today received information of the absence of attorneys at the time Mrs. Frohock was dying, and hence cannot hear the arguments on its legality.

Motion Is Refused.

Reargument of the case of William Tabal against W. W. Kildow for damages for withholding personal belongings because he failed to pay a board bill and later failed to deliver the property on payment of the bill, was heard before Judge Fruit this morning. The court denied the motion of Attorney C. L. Hood, allowing the case to stand in favor of the plaintiff.

Home From Funeral.

Judge Fruit and Court Reporter Harrison returned last night from Mauston Wis., where they attended the funeral of Attorney Hiram W. Barney, who died last Thursday of paralysis. The funeral was held yesterday morning.

BURN MORTGAGE ON CHURCH TOMORROW

In full view of the entire congregation the mortgage of the West Avenue Norwegian Methodist church will be burned tomorrow at 10:30 by Rev. Anderson.

Services will be conducted in the church as usual at 10:30 and Prof. E. K. Johnson of Minneapolis will preach the sermon.

After the services the ladies of the congregation will serve refreshments in the church parlors.

Bullet Strikes Head and Glances Off
—Recovery Is Assured—Shot
Because Accused of Theft

MINONG, Wis., Dec. 31.—Herman Steinhurst, 17 years of age, has been arrested on a charge of shooting and wounding D. O. Brewer, proprietor of the general store here.

About three weeks ago Brewer's store was burglarized, and he accused Steinhurst of being implicated. The latter denied it. While all the other members of the Brewer family were away, Steinhurst came into the store and bought some candy. He asked Brewer if the other members of the family were away, and on being told Brewer was alone, he drew a 32 caliber revolver, it is charged, and fired at Brewer, the bullet striking the latter above the left eye and glancing off.

The wound has been pronounced not dangerous unless complications set in. Steinhurst was taken to Shell Lake, and confined in the county jail.

The prisoner came here recently from St. Paul, and has been staying with a farmer in the vicinity. He says that his father is a watchman at a packing plant of Swift & Co. in Chicago, and that his home is in that city.

PUBLIC SPEAKER INTERRUPTED

Public speakers are frequently interrupted by people coughing. This would not happen if Foley's Honey and Tar were taken, as it cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. The genuine contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. O. T. Erhart.

NO NEW TRIAL IN
FREE PRESS SUITJUDGE HASTINGS AWARDS MR.
PFISTER $5,000.COURT UPHOLDS PLAINTIFF

Declares Four Trials at Once are Valid—Legal Requirements
Were Fully Met.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 31.—The verdict of $15,000 damages, given by the jury to Charles F. Pfister, in his libel suit against the Free Press and H. P. Myrick, will stand.

Judge S. D. Hastings has denied the motion of the defendants for a new trial and ordered that a judgment be entered in accordance with the verdict of the jury.

In his opinion, filed yesterday, Judge Hastings sustained the contention of the attorneys for the defense, Charles Quarles and T. M. Kearney, that he was entirely within his rights in trying a jury case even though Judge Williams was holding court at the same time and also sustained the contention of Mr. Quarles that section 2881 of the revised statutes settled the whole matter. In the first the court held that so long as only four judges of the circuit of Milwaukee county were holding jury trials the legal requirements were met.

Refers to Plea of Ignorance.

In the second contention he pointed out that though there were illegally five defendants and five attorneys for the defense and the defendants against whom the verdict was rendered were represented by a law firm of which 2 members took part in the trial only one of all the array claimed ignorance of the fact that Judge Williams was trying a jury case while the Pfister case was on trial.

INNOCENT SAVED BY CONFESSION

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Dec. 31.—Jules Nelson, who was placed under arrest last Monday on suspicion of having stolen a quantity of goods from a farmer's wagon, and who was to have his hearing today in court, is now a free man. Samuel White, a janitor in the Masonic block, has confessed to the theft, and after emerging from the sweat box, paid a fine of $26 and costs. A farmer's wagon was standing in an alley when White came by on his bicycle. He extracted a package containing two suits of underwear, two shirts, a pair of overalls and two pairs of socks. In his haste to escape he broke the chain on his wheel, and threw it behind an old building. Shortly after the arrest of Nelson, he said he knew who the guilty party was, but that it was not Nelson. He told Chief O'Brien if given a revolver he would get the fellow, as he had also stolen his wheel. This made the police suspicious and White's numerous stories soon brought him to a turn where he could no longer avoid the truth.

WILL QUIT SWEARING

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Dec. 31.—The first new year's resolution that has been made public is one made by a barber and a grocery man, who have solemnly promised not to indulge in profane language after Jan. 1. If one of them so far forgets himself as to yield to the temptation to use the name of the deity on terms of long acquaintance, he will forfeit $5 to the other. Whether they are going to vent their irritation in such expressions as "gee," "fudge," or "apricots," does not appear.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by O. T. Erhart.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

ANTIGO—Attorney A. B. Goodrick has sued the American Express company for $27 damages alleged to have been sustained when a deer which the plaintiff wished to ship was refused on the ground that it would be illegal to carry it.

ANTIGO—Harry Van Dyke, 18 years of age, received a jail sentence in lieu of the payment of a fine of $15 and costs on a charge of stealing dry batteries from a gasoline engine owned by August Brehmer, and damaging the engine.

BELOIT—Russell McKearn, who narrowly escaped death under the wheels of a street car, is under arrest for obtaining money under false pretenses. He was found lying across the tracks, and the car was not stopped until the fender had passed over him. McKearn is accused of having collected money from several business men, claiming he was another person whose credit is good.

BELOIT—Charles Pierce, a stranger, is under arrest on a charge of trying to pass checks thought to have been stolen, and which he is said to have indorsed with the names of the payee.

CASHTON—A special election to decide whether $15,500 worth of bonds shall be issued for the erection of a building to contain an electric light plant, a pumping station and a meeting place for the council, will be held Jan. 21. A year ago it was voted to spend $10,000 for the purpose, but attorneys said that the issue would be illegal because of technical irregularities, and it was found impossible to float the issue.

CLEAR LAKE—While sawing cordwood with a machine, J. Belke had one of his feet cut off.

FOND DU LAC—Judge James O'Neill of Neillsville will come to Fond du Lac Jan. 6, to try cases that have been sworn away from Judge Chester A. Fowler on affidavits of prejudice. It is believed that the first case tried will be that of the state vs. A. B. Fontaine, who is charged with conspiracy. C. E. Garvin, with whom Fontaine is said to have conspired, has been found not guilty by a jury in Judge Fowler's court. The case of the state vs. Bernard Sneridan and that of the state vs. L. Manderscheid will also be tried.

FORT ATKINSON—According to the new city directory, Fort Atkinson has a population of 5,300, an increase of 1,000 over the state census of 1905. Fort Atkinson is now the largest city in Jefferson county.

KOSHKONONG—Edward Bingham is kept busy supplying the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York, with turkeys and eggs. He is reported to have shipped 30,000 pounds of dressed turkeys on Saturday, and he ships nearly 100 dozen eggs daily.

NEW LONDON—Lieut. W. B. Wallace of the regular army has been ordered to report at West Point, where he will be assigned to Col. Scott's staff. Lieut. Wallace is not a West Point graduate, but came up from the ranks, and won the favorable opinion of Col. Scott while serving under him in the Philippines.

SPOONER—Henry Warner was accidentally shot in the leg while hunting with his brothers, Edward and Frank. The former fired at a rabbit running between him and Henry. The bullet did not touch the bone, and the wound is not serious.

SUPERIOR—Workmen employed in clearing away the ruins of the Great Northern grain elevator, which was destroyed by fire Nov. 8, found about a bucket full of the bones of John Swedburg, who lost his life in the fire.

SUPERIOR—The trials of William Winlock, charged with the murder of Albert Neumann, and of Andrew Gloushak, accused of murdering Gabriel Bongil, will take place during the January term of the Superior court.

SUPERIOR—City Attorney McIntosh has advised City Clerk Patterson that all documents intended for the common council which are deposited at the clerk's office are public, and may be inspected by any one.

SOLON SPRINGS—Bishop Schinner of Superior will dedicate the new Catholic church on Thursday, Jan. 2. Many clergymen from surrounding towns will attend the ceremony.

WATERTOWN—Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Habegger will celebrate their golden wedding on Dec. 31. Both are natives of the canton of Bourne, Switzerland, and were married in Iowa. They have lived in Watertown since 1861, and until a few years ago Mr. Habegger was engaged in business. He has held a public office since 1861, and is at present trustee of the Dodge county insane asylum and poor farm.
